NEGRO ADMITS "PROWLING" ON LOCAL PROPERTY

A section of a state law adopted in 1937 and amended in 1949 was invoked by borough police for the first time this morning in the case of a Philadelphia negro arrested at 2:30 a.m. on North Washington street on an alleged attempt to enter the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bollinger, opposite the Greyhound bus depot. The defendant gave his name as James Brown, 29, of 2227 North Sixth street, Philadelphia. He signed a plea of guilty before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore to a charge of "loitering and prowling on private property in the nighttime" and was held for sentence court December 17. He was recommended to the Adams county jail in default of $500 bail.

Driver Culls Police
The charge, used for the first time here, Squire Basehore said, is a misdemeanor, instead of a summary conviction charge of disorderly conduct used previously in similar cases. Borough police said they were called at 2:30 o'clock this morning by a bus driver at the Greyhound depot who said Brown had gone to the porch of the Bollinger home, tried the door and attempted to enter.

"Stop Shooting" Orders In Korea Confusing; Reds Want To Discuss Troop Withdrawal

Munsan, Korea, Nov. 29 (AP)—Communist negotiators today proposed immediate discussion of a plan for gradual withdrawal of foreign troops from Korea.

The Reds said a withdrawal by stages after an armistice is signed would take care of Allied fears that fighting will break out again after a truce goes into effect.

The Communists' first hint that they might settle for less than complete withdrawal of troops immediately came as the shooting all but ended along the 145-mile battle front. Both sides appeared to be waiting to see whether the negotiators at Panmunjom would be able to agree on an armistice before the cease-fire line agreement expires December 27.

Discuss Enforcing Truce
The armistice delegations are working on a program for supervising and enforcing the truce—item three on the agenda.

Since the discussions began the Reds have insisted on withdrawal of all foreign troops from Korea—a step the Allies contend is a political matter which should be debated at a formal peace conference after the armistice is in effect.

Lt. Gen. Nam Il, chief Communist negotiator, injected the new Red proposal with a hypothetical question at Thursday's session in Panmunjom. He asked whether the U.N. command would discuss the gradual withdrawal of foreign troops under the third item of the conference agenda.

The Communists made a similar proposal when the truce talks opened last July, but backed down in the face of adamant Allied opposition.

U.N. negotiators made no immediate reply Thursday. Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, chief of the U.N. delegation, told Nam Il, "I have noted your suggestion."

Joint Inspection Teams
An Allied spokesman, Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckols, said the question would require clarification and presumably U.N. negotiators would seek it when the delegates meet Friday at 11 a.m. (9 p.m. EST Thursday).

The U.N. command has proposed that there be no increase in military forces or equipment after an armistice is signed and that joint inspection teams make sure the truce terms are not violated. The Allies have said these two points are the key to a solution of the armistice enforcement problem. By insisting in the withdrawal of troops, Joy said, the Reds are "mixing up a peace treaty and an armistice."

Mrs. Charles Hess, Fifth street, reported to state police Wednesday the loss of two crates of chickens and a platform scale from a truck enroute from Berdersville to Taneytown on the Biglerville road. She later reported they were found in Biglerville.

They appear, beneath a likeness of Lincoln, on the York street side of the store. On this side of the building are also located a bronze plaque containing the Gettysburg Address, and another with these words: "Wills House. Abraham Lincoln slept in this house November 18, 1863, the night before his immortal address at the cemetery. Erected by Gettysburg Camp 112, Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, Gettysburg."

SYRIAN ARMY TAKES CONTROL OF ITS COUNTRY

Cairo, Nov. 29 (AP)—The Syrian army seized open control of Syria again today, a few hours after the reported appointment of a new pro-Soviet premier who opposes army participation in the government.

Radio Damascus announced that all members of the new cabinet—dominated by the Populist party—had been placed under arrest.

An Associated Press report from Damascus said the army had taken over Syria's internal security and that quiet prevailed throughout the country after the unopposed takeover.

There were no immediate reports of violence. The army, which has been running Syrian politics behind the scene for the past two years, apparently moved troops into the capital of Damascus and took over.

Young Army Leader
The army is run by Col. Adib Shishkeky, 44, soft-speaking career officer who himself led the last of three previous army coups in 1949. He has since been the army chief of staff.

The army move followed swiftly last night's naming of Marouf Dawalibi, a Populist, as premier after an 18-day government crisis. Seven of the 10 members of his new cabinet were Populists.

The Populists are the largest party in Parliament although they do not hold a majority.

Dawalibi, who also assumed the interim defense minister's post in his new cabinet, has demanded on previous occasions that the army clear out and stay out of politics.

Syria's political picture has long been complicated by behind-the-scenes maneuvering by Shishkeky and his powerful army clique.

Cabinet Squabble
Syria had been without a government since the cabinet headed by Hassan El Hakeem quit November 10 in a squabble over membership in the Middle East command sponsored by the Atlantic Pact powers.

Hakeem reportedly favored the proposed command. Dawalibi, who is said to be against everything Western and in favor of closer Arab-Soviet ties, reportedly opposed it.

Observers pointed out that army leaders have often opposed a plan fostered by Populist leaders, for a union of Syria with Iraq, which the Hashemite dynasty controls.

Some army leaders were believed opposed to such a plan for fear they would be swallowed up by the larger, better-trained Iraqi army. Other army figures oppose such a union on patriotic grounds.

One Leader Shot
In 1949 another army officer, Col. Husni Zayim, overthrew President Shukri El Kuwattiy and became president. A few months later army officers under Col. Sami Hennawi, hero of the Palestine war, revolted against Zayim and the latter was shot by a firing squad.

In 1950 Shishkeky staged the third coup, overthrowing Hennawi and sending him to prison on charges of threatening Syria's independence. Hennawi was freed in September, 1950. The following month he was assassinated by a Syrian fanatic in Beirut, Lebanon.

Since Hennawi's ouster, the country has had 12 governments, seven in 1949 alone.

15 FISHERMEN DIE IN CRASH

Boston, Nov. 29 (AP)—Fifteen fishermen of a 17-man crew perished last night when the 10,000-ton tanker Ventura smashed into the stern quarter of the 170-ton trawler Lynn in Boston harbor.

None of the 50 crewmen on the Texas Oil company tanker was injured.

The sea was calm and the night clear at the scene of the crash—a 500-yard wide channel only six miles from the Boston fish pier.

Coast guard observers said 13 of the victims went down with the trawler, "trapped in its steel hull like sardines in a can," while eating their evening meal or working in the engine room. The other four were plucked from the water by one of several boats in the vicinity, but two died later in a hospital.

CLUBS CONDUCT CHRISTMAS FAIR

Two hundred thirty women from throughout the county attended the annual Homemakers Christmas Fair Wednesday afternoon and evening at the Lutheran parish hall, Two Taverns, under sponsorship of the county's home economics clubs.

Various home economics groups arranged booths containing articles made or purchased by them as suggestions for Christmas arrangements, candies, cakes, decorations, and so forth.

The Barlow club members showed holiday foods, assisted by the Fairfield and Cashtown groups. Recipes for candies, cakes and other foods were shown with the displays of the articles. Other displays included, Conewago, knitted and crocheted articles; Harrisburg Road, place mats and napkins; New Oxford, slippers; Frogtown and Oak Grove, 50 cent gift suggestions; Alloway, 25 cent gift suggestions; Belmont, home-made toys for children; Cash-town and Fairfield, potholders, and other home-made gifts; Hunt avenue, pocketbooks, and Littlestown, aprons. Each group decorated its booth in keeping with the season.

A short program of Christmas songs was led by Miss Mary Jane Mickey, county home economics extension representative, and slides on "Creative Work" were shown. Mrs. Walter Shriver, Alloway, and Mrs. Irvin Kindig, Littlestown, presented readings.

The committee for the fair included Mrs. Emory Gitt and Mrs. Kindig, of Littlestown; Mrs. B. E. Benner, Fairfield, and Mrs. Merle Rudisill, Hunt avenue. The ladies of the Two Taverns Lutheran church provided a refreshment stand.

YOUTH TO DIE IN GAS HOUSE

El Centro, Calif., Nov. 29 (AP)—William Edward Cook, a 23-year-old desperado who kidnaped nine persons and killed six of them, was sentenced yesterday to death in San Quentin gas chamber for the murder of a Seattle oil salesman, Robert H. Dewey.

The five-foot, four-inch self-styled badman already was under five sentences of 60 years each in connection with the kidnap-murders of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mosser and their three children of Atwood, Ill. The sentences were to be served consecutively.

The federal director of prisons James W. Bennett, may now order the transfer of Cook from the federal prison at Alcatraz Island to California's San Quentin, where the former Joplin, Mo., man will await action of the state supreme court on his appeal for a review, automatic under California law.

If no reversible error is found by high court, the federal authorities then may surrender technical custody, so that Cook may pay the death penalty. The Department of Justice said in Washington that the attorney general will await receipt of formal papers before transferring Cook to California's jurisdiction.

Kefauver's Name On Western Ballot

Long Beach, Calif., Nov. 29 (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) says he has "given permission" for the placing of his name on the California primary election ballot as a candidate for President.

He told newsmen last night that "while I am not a candidate and am not running for any office except the United States Senate in 1954, I am not evading the opportunity of running for President."

Kefauver, head of a recent congressional investigation of crime in the United States, said he had discussed the matter with a group supporting his candidacy.

"People who have talked with President Truman recently have said he will not run," the senator said.

Two Big Dogs Try To Drown Mongrel Pup; Cop Saves Him

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 29 (AP)—A grateful little dog was recovering today from shock and bites inflicted by two big dogs who tried to drown him.

A policeman termed the incident "attempted murder." An agent of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals called it "the most unusual story I've ever heard."

Patrolman William R. Carleton of the police department of suburban Tonawanda told how he rescued the mongrel from the icy waters of a creek.

"One dog had the little guy by the head or the ear and the other grabbed him by the hind leg and they flipped him into the creek."

"Then they'd sit there and wait until the little one crawled back up on the bank, and the two big ones would grab him again and toss him back into the water."

Army's Oldest Unit Lands In Germany

Bremerhaven, Germany, Nov. 29 (AP)—The United States Army's oldest outfit has landed here to buttress General Dwight D. Eisenhower's European defense forces.

It was the Reconnaissance Company of Pennsylvania's 28th Division, which arrived yesterday aboard the transport General C. H. Muir, together with 2,000 other soldiers of the Division's 109th Infantry Regiment.

The Reconnaissance dates its history to Benjamin Franklin's "Battalion of the Associates" and is officially described as the "oldest component of the U. S. Army."

Besides this unit and the Second Battalion of the 109th, the transport brought over also the 109th Regimental Headquarters Company, the Tank Company, the Medical Company and the Heavy Mortar Company of the same regiment. The regiment is commanded by Col. H. D. McHugh, of Louisville, Ky. The troops said their nine-day voyage from Norfolk, Va., was smooth and sunny.

Three will have been entered for probate at the office of the county register and recorder. They included those of Alice J. Musselman, late of Gettysburg, with a sister, Carrie L. Musselman, Gettysburg, named as executrix and heir; Estella M. Kinder, late of McSherrytown, with a brother, Rev. Fr. Anthony L. Topper, South Mountain, as executor of the $5,000 estate, and Elsie B. Raffensperger, late of Butler township, with Guy Raffensperger, Biglerville R. 2, executor of the $750 estate.

WRITES ABOUT TRIP TO MEXICO

Myles E. Starnier, Gardner's R. D., Pennsylvania's representative to Mexico under the International Farm Youth Exchange program, is finding Mexico beautiful, but its food hot and its traffic problems involved, according to a letter sent by the county youth to the Agricultural Extension office here.

Starnier and three other youths, from Connecticut, South Dakota and Kansas, are representing the U. S. under the program in Mexico. They are the first to visit Mexico under the IFYE program.

Starnier, who left here November 15 to begin the four-month tour, said he is to be sent to the state of Puebla, the outstanding apple orchard section of Mexico.

Before leaving for Mexico, Starnier and his associates were given a three and a half day briefing in Washington by state and agriculture department officials on such things as U. S. foreign policy, agricultural statistics, the Point Four program of the United Nations and facts about Mexico.

Traffic in Mexico City is a problem, Starnier wrote. "I would suggest that unless you are an experienced combat driver you leave your car on the edge of the town. No one stops for anyone else and when the driver puts his hand out the window it simply means that the window is down. The police stand on cement pillars so they won't get run down and blow their whistles only to break the monotony of being there."

During their stay in Mexico City the U. S. youths have met many Mexican government officials and members of the National Harvest association of Mexico which is sponsoring the IFYE program there.

Adams counties raised $200 towards the IFYE fund on which Starnier is traveling. He is the first countyman selected to represent the U. S. in the overseas program.

DAIRY GROUP ELECTS STONER

Joseph Stoner, East Berlin, president of the Adams County Dairy Herd Improvement association, was also elected president of the Adams County Holstein Breeders association Wednesday night at a meeting of the Holstein breeders at Banker's restaurant, Littlestown road.

Edgar Weaner, Gettysburg R. 4, was elected vice president and Walter Hay, Gettysburg R. 3, secretary-treasurer. Hay was also named as the Adams county representative on the board of directors of the state Holstein Breeders association. Named as directors of the Adams county group, in addition to the officers were B. J. Griffe, York Springs, and Russell Grove, Gardner's.

Reports on the Interstate Milk Producers cooperative meeting held this week at Philadelphia were presented by Russell Grove and Irvin Hostetter, Hanover R. 4. B. J. Griffe and Walter Hay reported here classification work carried on in their herds last Wednesday by an official from the national classification services of the national Holstein Breeders association.

Jack Fairchild, Berwick, state secretary for the Holstein breeders reported plans to retire from that post and go into classification work. He described the future of Holstein breeders as "brighter than ever" and reported that Pennsylvania is fast approaching second place in the nation for number of Holstein herds. At present it ranks behind New York and Wisconsin, in third place.

County Agent M. T. Hartman spoke on cooperation and the building of a better club. Twenty additional members were listed, bringing the total to 60. The group voted to continue to hold three meetings a year.

6 More Steel Firms Get CIO Demands

Pittsburgh, Nov. 29 (AP)—Philip Murray's CIO United Steelworkers handed their 22-point contract demand to six more steel companies today as negotiations with U. S. Steel entered the third day.

Among the half dozen companies getting a first glimpse of the demands, which Murray says include a substantial wage increase clause, are Bethlehem Steel corporation, Jones and Laughlin Steel corporation and Republic Steel corporation.

The demands were given to U. S. Steel representatives Tuesday and yesterday one of Murray's top aides presented the demands to Aluminum Company of America.

The talks with U. S. Steel will be continued behind closed doors, with both Murray and Vice President John A. Stephens of U. S. Steel agreeing to withhold progress reports on negotiations. The negotiators said the closed door policy will speed settlement by maintaining harmony at the conference table.

ARMY ELEVEN IN BAD SHAPE FOR BIG GAME

West Point, N. Y., Nov. 29 (AP)—Army will go into Saturday's annual football tussle against Navy at Philadelphia with only one player that Coach Earl Blaik believes would have even an outside chance of breaking into the Middles' starting lineup.

That young man is Frederic D. Meyers, 19-year-old quarterback from Enid, Okla. Army's hopes of upsetting the experienced Middles depend largely on Meyers' pitching arm and his legs. He also does the punting and is a right fair country runner. Blaik today called Meyers potentially a first rate operator but lacking the experience of the Navy quarterbacks—Bob Zastrow and Mike Sorrentino. The Navy signal callers both are seniors.

Actually, Meyers is not a top notch "T" formation quarterback. He would be much more effective in a single wing or even at halfback in the "T" but he was the best Blaik had left after the cribbing scandal wrecked the Army squad.

Although he has seen full time offensive action in only two games, against Villanova and the Citadel, Meyers' record shows he has completed 18 of 45 passes for 263 yards and one touchdown.

He also has scored two touchdowns rushing and caught several passes. He's the best receiver of aials on the team. And his kicking has been more than adequate.

The six-foot, 178-pound back was injured in the first six minutes of the Army's second game against Northwestern and he never returned to full time service until two weeks ago against the Citadel.

There have been reports that Blaik might shift to a single wing or spread formations in order to make more effective use of Meyers' abilities.

And yesterday Blaik was forced to dig into the junior varsity to find a couple of tackle replacements. He brought up a couple of 213 pounders in Howard Glick of Pittsburgh and John Krause of Millvale, Pa.

Neither has seen as much as a moment's action in a varsity game this or any other season. Blaik's action was made necessary by injuries to two key players—Bob Guidera and Myron Rose.

MARION WILL COACH BROWNS

St. Louis, Nov. 29 (AP)—Marty Marion signed a three-year contract today as player-coach of the St. Louis Browns.

Marion will coach for sure and play if his knee and back permit. He will receive a reported $15,000 for coaching and more than $25,000 if he can make a comeback as shortstop.

Marty was fired last Friday as manager of the rival St. Louis Cardinals. Owner Fred Saigh refused to renew his contract and reportedly is trying to hire Eddie Stanky of the New York Giants as the new Redbird pilot.

Marion's switch to the American league Browns was announced this morning at a news conference by Bill Veeck, dynamic owner of the club which is undergoing an overhaul.

Boston And Browns In 3-Player Deal

Boston, Nov. 29 (AP)—The Boston Red Sox late Wednesday traded catcher Les Moss and outfielder Tom Wright to the St. Louis Browns for Ken Wood, outfielder, and Gus Niarhos, a catcher.

A Sox spokesman said no cash was involved. Moss came from the Browns to Boston early last season. Wright spent most of last season with Louisville.

Niarhos became St. Louis property only Tuesday when he figured in an eight-man swap between the Browns and the Chicago White Sox.

Ewing Gains 1st All-State Grid Post; Ward Is Honored

Two Gettysburg college football squad members, both of whom are juniors, were signally honored in the 1951 Associated Press All-Pennsylvania college selections which were announced today.

William "Bill" Ewing, guard, was placed on the first offensive unit while Eugene "Berky" Ward, quarterback, was among those receiving honorable mention.

Ewing, a 20-year-old player from Ocean City, N. J., has been a stand-out performer for the Bullets at guard for the last two seasons. He has proven equally proficient on the defense and offense. He stands five-feet 10 inches and weighs 177 pounds.

"Berky" Ward, former Waynesboro high star, came along fast during the past season and turned in his best performance against Franklin and Marshall when he completed 14 of 17 aials, three of which went for touchdowns, and tallied another touchdown himself. He stands 5-9 and weighs 150 pounds.

For the first time in history, the All-State grid squad lists 22 players—11 on offense and 11 on defense—and, oddly enough, the big man and the little man both answer to the name of Young.

George Young, 245-pound Bucknell university tackle, is the big boy of the outfit while Rich Young, 160-pound quarterback of undefeated Susquehanna, is the little boy.

Unbeaten Bucknell placed four men on the two units while Penn, Villanova, Penn State and Susquehanna each placed two.

Nick Liotta, Villanova guard picked for the defensive team, was honored posthumously. He was found dead in the basement of his dormitory yesterday.

Nine of the players on the first team are residents of Pennsylvania. Five are from New Jersey.

100 Players Named
In addition to a second team, also composed of 11 offensive players and 11 defensive players, 56 honorable mentions were chosen, making a total of 100 players selected.

Included among the honorable mentions are: Ends, Egloff, Bucknell; Hannum, F. and M.; Dapp, Shippensburg; and Snyder, Lebanon Valley; tackles, Drazek, Albright; Jordan, Muhlenberg; Kirby, Bucknell; guards, Chiroma, Bucknell; linebacks, Staszak, Drexel; backs, Butterworth and Dean, Bucknell; Fisher, Drexel; Gobrecht, Dickinson; Moyer, Lehigh; Werst, P. and M.

Eddie Stanky Said Certain Of CARD POST

By JOE REICHLER
New York, Nov. 29 (AP)—Eddie Stanky virtually is certain of succeeding Marty Marion as manager of the St. Louis Cardinals.

No definite agreement has been reached as yet, but Presidents Horace Stoneham of the New York Giants and Fred M. Saigh of the Cardinals will meet within the next few days with the hope of closing the deal, brewing since the world series.

The transaction may not be announced until the minor league convention on in Columbus next week.

The Cards will be asked to turn over Pitcher Max Lanier and Outfielder Chuck Diering for Stanky, who will then sign as a player-manager with the Redbirds for a two-year contract at $35,000 per season.

Although Saigh has been quoted as saying that he had three men in mind for the job, he has not seriously considered anybody other than Stanky.

It was only a question whether Stoneham was willing to part with the Giants' scrappy second baseman, admittedly the inspirational spark who drove the team to the National league flag last season.

Won't Block Stanky
Stoneham is loathe to lose the brainy "quarterback" of his infield, but is agreeable to the transaction only because he does not want to be accused of "blocking Stanky's chance of realizing his dream"—managing a big league club.

Saigh, who had rejected an earlier New York request for Enos Slaughter and Harry Brecheen, is equally reluctant to part with Lanier. Finally convinced, however, the Giants won't back down on their latest demand, the Redbird boss is ready to give up his veteran southpaw.

Saigh's criticism of Marion was that Marty wasn't aggressive enough and didn't devote as much time as he should have to running the club.

That is a fault he won't find with Stanky, who talks and thinks baseball every waking hour of the day.

Ready As Manager
Reached in his home at Fair Hope, Ala., Stanky refused to discuss the matter until it was made official. However, he did say he was definitely interested in managing a big league club.

"I feel I am now ready to handle a job as a major league manager," he said. "However, I have not talked to Mr. Saigh."

Stanky played in 145 games last season. He batted a disappointing .247 but played a splendid game in the field, drew a trunkful of walks, scored 88 runs and slammed 14 homers, the highest output of his 17-year-career, nine in the big leagues. Although 34 years old, he stole eight bases, third high on the Giants. The previous year Stanky placed second in the National league's most valuable player poll.

Lanier, 37 years old next August, was used as a spot pitcher last season. He ended up with a creditable 11-9 record.

Diering, 28, is regarded as a "good-field, no-hit" flycatcher.

GHS RECIPIENT OF SOUTH PENN TITLE TROPHY

Gettysburg high school was formally presented the South Penn championship football trophy emblematic of winning the 1951 South Penn conference title at a meeting of the group at Allenberry inn, Bolling Springs, Wednesday evening.

In accepting the trophy on behalf of Gettysburg high school, Head Coach Howard Shoemaker commented, "I want to congratulate the other coaches on their football teams. But what is of more value, I want to congratulate them on developing boys as good, clean and wholesome individuals."

The presentation was made by Vice President Ray Gray, Hanover, who presided in the absence of Harold Hench, Shippensburg, president. Gray stated, "as long as we couldn't win the championship, there is no team I would sooner see win than Gettysburg."

Basketball, baseball and track schedules were approved by the group and additional officials were placed on the approved football and basketball lists.

By unanimous vote, it was decided to give South Penn scouts good seats for as many games as they wish to scout.

Postponements Arranged
The group approved a plan in postponing games whereby the home team must make the decision whether or not to play. If possible the postponement should be made by 2:45 on the afternoon of a game played on Saturday afternoon, Saturday night, or Monday night. If the game is postponed later than 2:45 and the visiting team arrives at the site of the game then the home team will pay $45 for the meals and actual cost of transportation. If any expenses arise because there is insufficient time in cancelling the game the cost will be borne by the home team.

The coaches agreed that Ben French, writing for the Associated Press, frequently overlooked the South Penn conference in his football roundups. The secretary-treasurer was instructed to write him and ask to be included in the roundup because of the fine type of football played in the South Penn.

A poll was taken among schools to determine the policy concerning price of tickets since the government has stopped taxing high school admissions. No action was taken on a uniform price.

Those attending the meeting from Gettysburg were: Prof. Guile W. Leffer, Fred Troxell, George Forney, Howard Shoemaker, Ross Sachs, Rogers Herr, John O'Brien and Jim Hartzell.

box until such time as the appraiser could look over everything in the box, whether it was the property of the decedent or not. In many cases it would also delay the settlement of an estate because frequently wills are kept in the safe deposit boxes, it was pointed out.

Paul L. Spangler, a past president of the association, presided at Wednesday's dinner meeting with 54 present. An election of officers scheduled for the session was postponed until the December meeting.

Dr. Idle Speaks
Dr. Dunning Idle, formerly of the history department of Gettysburg college, who has returned from two years with the State department as a public information officer in the Far East, spoke on his experiences there.

Telling of the great interest in the Far East in things American, he urged strongly the continuation of the U. S. State department's information program there in the fight against communism. Noting that "we simply must be consistent, we cannot turn an information program on and off at our will and expect it to do the job it should do," Doctor Idle said: "As they find that we are not trying to make Americans out of them, as they find we are simply acting as a friend, that we have no imperialistic designs, the people of the East become more and more interested in us and they want to know more of what we do and what we are. We cannot give them that information by radio, because few have radios. We must provide a program that will provide materials they can read, pictures they can see, and someone who can tell them of our nation. It costs money, but it is money well spent."

Must Protect Ourselves
He spoke at some length of the economy of one of the world's newest nations, Indonesia. "The leaders there are trying to show the people that wealth depends upon what they produce. At the same time the Communists are trying to foment difficulties by discrediting the idea that one must earn what he receives. It is a problem that will be solved, I think, if the Indonesians have the time to solve it." He described his own experiences when the government of Indonesia borrowed 50 percent of all currency outstanding, thus cutting everyone's supply of money in half.

In concluding, Doctor Idle pointed out: "No people that develops a high culture can long survive unless they are willing to defend themselves. We are in that position. We must maintain the strength to protect ourselves and our way of life."

STAR VILLANOVA GRIDDER FOUND DEAD IN DORM

Philadelphia, Nov. 29 (AP)—Nick Liotta, 22-year-old Villanova college football co-captain, was found dead in a dormitory basement yesterday. Police said death was by hanging. The coroner's office ascribed it to natural causes.

Radnor township police said they found Liotta's body under a strip of piping, a coil of telephone wire twisted around his neck. The wire, police said in their official report, had been looped over a pipe.

Joseph Tercha, Delaware county coroner, said Dr. John Turner of Bryn Mawr informed him that Liotta died of natural causes, apparently of a heart attack. He added that no autopsy is planned.

The college, operated by the Roman Catholic order of St. Augustine, announced only that Liotta was dead and that the cause of death was unknown. Beyond that most officials held to steadfast silence. Teammates of the popular Liotta, who was a candidate for all-American honors as a guard, were reported to be under strict orders from college authorities to say nothing. Reporters seeking to talk to the players were turned away from the dormitories.

On Writers' All-American
Liotta—christened Dominic—was born in Everett, Mass. After his graduation from high school there he joined the army, serving two years, most of it in Japan where he played on the all-star service eleven.

Already he had been chosen by the Football Writers Association of America as a member of its All-America team selected for Look magazine. He also had been named to the Associated Press All-Pennsylvania Football squad.

One college official said Liotta had been despondent since Villanova lost 20-13 to Boston college before his family and home town fans at Boston two weeks ago. The official indicated Liotta's low spirits were more noticeable after Villanova took a 45-7 lacing at the hands of Louisiana State last week.

Although the college's official statement on the 225-pound player's death said he had been ill for the past two days, it was learned he practiced for the scheduled Tulsa game on Tuesday. The game, booked for the Oklahoma city Saturday, has been cancelled. It would have been the windup of a nine-game schedule in which Villanova won five and lost three.

The hard working guard played on both offense and defense in this age of platoon football when most players specialize in either offense or defense. His coach, Art Raimo, rated him as "the finest collegiate lineman I've ever seen."

Members of Liotta's family were stunned by the news of his death. His father, Peter, a barber, told friends Nick "always was care-free and a great favorite with his classmates when he attended Everett high."

Besides the parents, one brother and five sisters survive.

raise a window. Two local taxi drivers, police said, had also seen the man on the porch. They had ordered him away, police said.

Officers Raymond Menges and William Gilbert made the arrest on North Washington street a short distance from the Bollinger home. The bus driver and others identified Brown as the man on the porch. Police said he boarded the bus west of Cashtown and got off at the local depot. He had been drinking, they said, and broke a bottle of wine or whiskey on the Bollinger porch, apparently when it fell from a pocket of his coat.

First Denied Charges
Mrs. Bollinger is part-time borough policeman and court matron. Brown first refused to plead guilty. He said he had been asleep on the bus and when the bus driver awakened him, he was still sleepy. He said he didn't know where he was and went to the "nearest house" to inquire. He said he did not know that he got off the bus in front of the brightly lighted depot, where he could have made his inquiries.

After Squire Baschore had held him for grand jury action, he decided to change his plea and signed the plea of guilty.

Chicago, Nov. 29 (AP)—Toby, the 1,200-pound Aberdeen Angus grand champion steer of the International Livestock exposition sold for the surprising low price of $6.75 a pound today.

This was only slightly more than as much as the $12-a-pound last year's champion, a Hereford, brought.

Toby, owned by Iowa State college, Ames, was bought by the Triangle Packing company, Chicago. Lester Cook, the buyer, said the animal would be slaughtered for Dave's market of Millburn, N. J.

BRATTON HOLDS CHAMP TO DRAW

Chicago, Nov. 29 (AP)—Johnny Bratton, Chicago's unpredictable welterweight, charmed a Chicago stadium crowd last night with a pilledriving assault that earned him a draw with champion Kid Gavilan. The end of the non-title 10 round bout, which was televised across the nation, found the 737 spectators on their feet, cheering the unpredictable "Brat" lustily.

Then, when the verdict was announced—the referee for Bratton, one judge for Gavilan, the other called it a standoff—the crowd cheered even wilder.

Bratton went into the bout scaling an over-the-limit 140 pounds, as did Gavilan, the Cuban Kid. Bratton was a 3-1 underdog.

Supporters worried lest Bratton prove ring-shy after suffering jaw bone breaks in three boxing battles—to Gavilan last May, to Ike Williams in 1950 and to Beau Jack in 1949. Furthermore, the Brat was known to have a habit of going on the defensive when the going was toughest.

But tactically Bratton was a changed man last night. Ringside observers were agreed that Brat fought the most impressive battle of his major competition.

Today's Talk

BY GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
LITTLE KEPSAKES OF LOVEI dare say that it is a universal habit of millions to set aside little keepsakes of love that have at some time or another given a glow to the heart. An inexpensive souvenir, a newspaper clipping, a cancelled railroad or steamship ticket reminding one of an unusual and happy event, a letter of encouragement, though unsigned, a baby's picture, a foreign post-card from a dear one, and oh dozens of other small things, insignificant in themselves, but somehow important to the heart.Usually, and certainly in my own case, most of these things find their daily resting place in an office desk.
It's the drawer that is always too full, but try as I may, I somehow am drawn to let it stay that way, for how I dislike to disturb anything that has once warmed me within. And so, like the beads to the Rosary I finger these precious items over again and again. Among the lot of clippings are poems and inspiring things that my mother sent to me when in college. I read them over again and again, but I can't discard them.I have visited with many a business man, and have noted his shy look as he pulled out from one of his desks some little thing of significance to him, and that he wanted me to see. It would surprise many to learn how really warm and tender is the inner life of the average successful business man. You just have to get him off parade, that's all.There are other keepsakes, stored in the memory, intangible, though very real in their significance.
Thrills of beauty—a sunset, the call of a mocking bird or hermit thrush, moments of peace beside the soft wash of the ocean's waves, early morning in the quiet countryside with the dew smiling upon the lap of earth, a dog's bark after a long separation. Or it may be no more than the memory picture of a small barefoot boy—which was once yourself!If it were not for the choice little keepsakes of love that may be ours through life, how very dull and prosaic all life would be. The sentimental side of us needs an occasional shower to keep it fresh and humanly rich.Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Initiative."

will include a new factory at York,

Littlestown COUNCIL VOTES DOWN ONE-WAY ALLEY TRAFFIC

The resurfacing of Patrick avenue and West Myrtle street from North street to Patrick avenue has been completed, Councilman Erwin Robert, chairman of the street committee of the Littlestown borough council, reported at the regular meeting of the council Tuesday night in the office of the secretary, J. Keefe.

Councilman Robert said that, during inclement weather, resurfacing of M street from Charles street to Boyer street would be done in week and a seal coat applied Lumber street.

Councilman Robert reported that November 20 the gas company had requested permission to excavate and install a gas main on Patrick avenue, after the street had been prepared for resurfacing, and a request was refused. He said the matter had been taken up with the gas company previously to enable this street prior to the resurfacing, and it was learned that at that time pipe could not be obtained. The pipe arrived November 16, council agreed that the gas main could be installed within the grass at back of the curb.

Keep Same Wage Rate
Council also agreed to maintain wages of borough laborers, fixed $1 per hour during the relaying water service lines on North and South Queen street, at the same time for the remainder of the year. A petition bearing the signatures of 116 persons protesting one-way traffic in the alleys adjacent to the intersection of Locust street and the alley, and the alley adjacent to Blocher-Baker running from East King street to Charles street, is presented by Herbert T. Patterson. The petition stated that, "It is the general opinion of the undersigned that, at no time prior to the construction of Queen street did these alleys constitute a hazard due to any great amount of traffic in the same and, since these alleys in question are already posted prohibiting parking therein, it is further believed that one-way traffic regulation shall not solve any trouble that is now encountered due to more traffic in these alleys because of the recent detours. And in general it is further believed that, should the one-way traffic regulation be enforced, there would be a tendency to direct more traffic to the center of the congested area." After discussion, a vote resulted in defeat of the proposed one-way traffic regulation.

Permits Are Issued
Water permits were issued to the following: Harvey R. Martin, R. 1, two permits; E. Foreman Staveley, 11 Crouse Park; Roger G. Orndorff, 2 1.

At previous meetings Council had gone on record as approving street lights for Rita Marie avenue and in the corner of James avenue and West Myrtle street. However, no formal resolution had been passed and the Metropolitan Edison company presented a resolution covering these two street lamp installations. It was adopted.

Building permits were granted to the following: Mrs. Zona Harner, 16 North Queen street, cement sidewalk; George M. Zerling, 24 South Queen street, wooden display sign; Mrs. Annie M. Kelly, 305 South Queen street, to paint and repair brick dwelling; Paul L. Hollinger, dismantle and move frame storage building at rear of 102 Cemetery street.

To Install Lighting
A communication received by Harry Badders, secretary of the Alpha Fire company, from C. Earle Cole, supervising inspector of the Department of Labor and Industry, relative to an order directing that public assembly after dark in the Alpha building be discontinued until an approved emergency lighting system be installed, was read to council with other letters on the same subject. Council directed that plans for gas lighting be prepared by Herbert S. Plunkert and submitted to the Department of Labor and Industry for approval.

Treasurer Flickinger reported the following receipts: Justice of the Peace P. Loy Lindaman, $40 for motor code and disorderly conduct charges; Secretary Keefe, amusement taxes for September, 1951, $297.45; Manufacturers Light and Heat company, excavation permit, 39 James avenue, $2; rent for Alpha building election day, $15; fines for distributing circulars, by Benn's Clothing, Hanover, $1; fines for distributing circulars, Montgomery Ward and Company, $1, and from J. W. Penney and Company, $1. Total receipts amounted to $357.45.

The borough fund account expenditures amounted to $3,912.48; the water fund account, $1,168.47; the sanitary sewer fund account, $420.54, and the highway aid fund, $164.78. The total expenditures of all funds for November was $5,666.27.

Albert H. Miller, Jr., chief of police, submitted his report from October 15 to November 15, as follows: One arrest for larceny, one for AWOL, one narcotics violation; three arrests for reckless driving; one arrest for hit and run and one arrest for disorderly conduct, a total of eight. Parking meter receipts were shown as $204.42. There were five

MISSING SHIP REACHES TRUK

Guam, Nov. 29 (AP)—The teakwood schooner Romance pulled into Truk today and its missionary skipper scored another victory over the lonesome wastes of the Pacific.

The schooner had been missing 16 days. U. S. Navy planes and ships had searched, with little hope that the Romance would be found.

It looked as if lady luck finally had turned her back on Father William E. Rively, the sea-faring missionary from Altoona, Pa.

The Jesuit priest was caught in a typhoon in 1949 while making the rounds of his parish—the 1,000 mile long Caroline Island chain. He and his native crew were lost 12 days in their outrigger. That time they made it into Truk, too.

LOOKOUT CLUB
HOLDS MEETING

The Indian Lookout Sportsmen's club held its November meeting Tuesday evening at the Fire hall with a good attendance presided over by President Harold Hoke. The committee in charge of putting out feed for game in the hard winter season reported and the matter was discussed but no definite decision was reached and the matter was tabled for further report and action at the December meeting.

W. B. Shank, John Eyer, George Ashbaugh and President Hoke were given the responsibility of the shooting match to be held December 23, beginning at noon, when turkeys, ducks and chickens will be offered as prizes. President Hoke, reporting on the "Hunting by Permission Only" project of the club, said he considered it a complete success. It was announced that movies have been booked for future meetings during the indoor season. Treasurer Robert Stoner reported a balance of $969.24. Two new members, John Ridenour and Charles Bankert, were received into club membership bringing the total membership to 117.

Shank, Ashbaugh and Hoke reported on their bear hunting trip to Pennsylvania. W. B. Shank talked about organizing an Archery club but none was recommended at this time. After the business meeting at the Fire hall, the club adjourned to the Parish house for refreshments and a 30-minute sound color movie on "Alaska Fishing."

Dance At Legion

Commander Eugene T. Rodgers of the Emmitsburg American Legion has announced a dance to be held by the local Legion Friday night at the Post home on North Seton avenue. Music will be by the Big Five. All Legion members are entitled to bring one guest and admission will be by membership card only.

St. Joseph's Church News

The double feasts of the Manifestation of the Miraculous Medal and of St. Catherine Labourer were celebrated during the week. The feast of the Miraculous Medal, celebrated Tuesday, was the occasion of a high mass sung by Rev. John D. Sullivan, the pastor.

The special sermon on Monday evening during the devotion of the Novena was preached by the Very Rev. Francis J. Dodd, C.M., who is the director of the Daughters of Charity of the Eastern Province of the United States. This province covers most of the country east of the Mississippi river. Father Dodd sketched briefly the history of the apparitions with which Sister Catherine Labourer was favored and pointed out the spiritual lessons from her life. Investiture followed the sermon.

On Tuesday afternoon the children of St. Euphemia's school and the pupils of the St. Joseph's high school attended Miraculous Medal devotions in the church. Those not already invested were made members of the Association of the Miraculous Medal. Father Sullivan gave a brief explanation of the history of this devotion.

A special invitation was extended to the members of the parish to become promoters of the Miraculous Medal association which was organized in this country by Rev. Joseph A. Skelly, C.M., in 1914.

Novena Begins Friday

The annual Novena in preparation for the feast of the Immaculate Conception will begin on Friday evening at 7:30. The feast is always the occasion for receiving new members into the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is expected that a number of applicants will be received this year. The ladies who wish to join the sodality have been requested to hand their names to one of the officers or to leave their names at the rectory with any of the priests.

In honor of the feast of St. Catherine Labourer, the school children presented several tableaux on Tuesday and Wednesday, dramatizing the event of the apparitions.

The drive for clothing for the needy of Korea and Europe as well as the Near East is about complete. A large number of cartons have been shipped to the warehouses in New York where they will be stored until the ships are available to carry them overseas. A full report on that activity will be given later when all the returns are in.

Game On Saturday

An exciting basketball game is in prospect for Saturday afternoon between the eighth grade girls of St. Euphemia's and the freshmen of the Joseph's high. The coaches of the graders, Miss Sue Law and Miss Marie Tomber, hope to upset the high school girls. Both coaches have been working hard to put on the finishing touches before their hoopsters go on the floor on Saturday.

Miss Robbie Stoner spent the Thanksgiving holiday in York, Pa., visiting with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Krenzer. Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Houser and Frank W. Weant were Sunday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Fraley.

Trooper and Mrs. John Koonitz, and daughter, Lexington Park, Md., have returned home after spending several days with Mrs. Koonitz's mother, Mrs. Ida M. Goulden. Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Sneeringer, Harover, spent Sunday with Mrs. Goulden. Mrs. Sneeringer is the former Dora Goulden.

Ailing Dad Insists
On Family Reunion

Chambersburg, Pa., Nov. 29 (AP)—For the first time in 13 years the big family of 68-year-old Howard Kerlin had a reunion at his bedside in a hospital room here.

Kerlin, a retired farmer, was told he should undergo surgery for an ailment the nature of which was not disclosed. But he refused to consent until he saw his nine sons and eight daughters, ranging in age from 17 to 41. Deeply touched by their coming, his mind at peace, Kerlin gave way and was operated on yesterday.

Five daughters came from Long Beach, Calif., the others of 17 from western Pennsylvania and one from Maryland. Their mother agreed with them that "the get-together boosted our morale as much as it did dad's."

When George Washington lived as a youth of 19 on the Rappahannock river opposite Fredericksburg, Va., he often went for a swim in the stream.

Lewisburg, Pa., Nov. 29 (AP)—A State Department official told a college conference here that the fundamental problems of the Middle East cannot be solved by any one conference on Current Problems of "Each nation must do its part," declared Dr. S. Shepard Jones, State Department specialist in Near Eastern, South Asian and African affairs. Jones spoke last night at a conference on Current Problems of the Middle East being held at Pennell university.

WE'RE NOT IN BEAN BAG GAME WITH RUSSIANS

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Nov. 29 (AP)—Now the Russians are indignant. They're complaining this country is playing "dirty pool."

It goes back to a phrase tucked away in a bill passed by Congress which the Russians took more than a month to discover.

In September the House was debating the mutual security bill to give $7,500,000,000 in arms and supplies to our allies. Up stepped Rep. Charles Kersten, Wisconsin Republican, with a few ideas he wanted added to the bill.

Would Arm Escapees

If able-bodied men escaped from the iron curtain countries, he wanted some of the money used to form them into military units which some day might be able to fight for the liberation of their homeland. And he said, further, that some of the money could be used in helping underground organizations in countries behind the curtain.

Except for Kersten's own brief explanation, not a word was said about creating or helping underground groups inside the iron curtain. Nevertheless, the bill as passed by Congress and signed into law in October says:

Some of the money should be used, whenever the president thinks it's worthwhile, for arming escapees "or for other purposes." That little phrase—"or for other purposes"—is as wide as the sky.

Shoe's On Another Foot

It would certainly cover—anytime the president chose—Kersten's brief mention of helping undergrounds behind the curtain. In fact, it's wide enough to cover almost anything.

Last week the Russians started screaming. They charged the act was intended to finance "subversive activity and sabotage" in Russia and other iron curtain countries. They want Congress to repeal the act, and have carried their complaint to the United Nations.

Kept Straight Face

This Russian indignation, a good example of how the shoe on the other foot feels, must have amused the American diplomats since the Communist party in every country is an underground.

So if this country poured some money into undergrounds behind the curtain it would only be reversing the deal a little. But the State Department kept a straight face. It said:

The Soviet complaint comes with "singular ill-grace from a Soviet regime which consistently has supported subversive activities against the U. S. and other nations of the world."

But then the State Department added something which is difficult to understand. It said the Russian complaint was "groundless... propaganda."

Propaganda it may be, and undoubtedly is, for no one expects this complaint to change relations between this country and Russia a bit. They couldn't be much worse.

Hardly Groundless

But the State Department might have trouble proving the Russian complaint is groundless when Kersten, who fathered the phrase—"or for other purposes"—which excited the Russians, explaining his intentions about the underground and Congress approved the phrase.

This whole exchange comes under the heading of diplomatic window-dressing. The Communists have a world-wide underground. In this country, just to take one example, the party's leaders were convicted or conspiring to teach forcible overthrow of the government.

And it seems a pretty safe guess that this country not only was encouraging undergrounds behind the curtain before Kersten mentioned the idea but that the Russians knew it. If we haven't been doing it, we've been sound asleep. We're not playing bean-bag with the Russians.

MICHAEL POEM IN PEARL "ADD"

Gettysburg residents may expect to see, within a short time, a poem written by a Gettysburg resident, Dr. H. C. Michael, 215 Springs avenue, in an advertisement for California pears.

"The Pear and I" will appear as a part of Day and Young's advertising campaign, as "what one of our satisfied customers thinks about Buttersweet Comice Pears."

Day and Young are packers and shippers of Santa Clara valley fruits and berries. Last year a California couple, Roe and Helen Reiter, of San Jose, sent a box of these pears to Dr. and Mrs. Michael. On December 27, Dr. Michael acknowledged the gift with the poem, which found its way to the packing firm's offices.

"We still have that original letter," wrote W. C. Day. "We have read your poem several times and each time it appears more interesting to us, and we have reached the point where we believe a reprint of your poem would be very effective as a testimonial in our advertising program."

Mr. Day wrote to Dr. Michael for permission to use the poem. Dr. and Mrs. Michael are leaving Gettysburg next week to make their home at the Lutheran home, Washington, D. C.

Harrisburg, Nov. 29 (AP)—The Pennsylvania Economy league said Wednesday that in preparation of the commonwealth's budget a zeal for increased revenues should be matched by an equal zeal for economy. President Robert B. Murray, Jr., made the statement in replying to criticism by Governor John S. Fine to the league's claim the state's budget could be balanced without further increased taxes.

Williamsport, Pa., Nov. 29 (AP)—Fire on Tuesday destroyed another portion of the Armstrong Furniture company plant here just seven months to the day after the main plant suffered $200,000 damage due to fire. Damage in last night's blaze in a two-story frame building was estimated at more than $50,000. The structure was used to make furniture frames.

COMMUNISTIC CANNIBALISM NOT A SOLUTION

By JAMES MARLOW
Washington, Nov. 29 (AP)—It would be a little gruesome if the Communists took over here, judging from what's happened elsewhere.
Wherever they move in they have the immediate problem of trying to stay in. This seems to be a continuing problem since the Russian Communists, after being in 34 years, still need a secret police.
For the Communists, as their history shows, staying in means getting rid of members of the opposition, active or potential, or crushing it in several well-known ways: Confiscating their property; forcing them into labor camps; or executions.
Traditional Opponents
Traditionally the Communists look for their opposition in these two groups:
1. Those with material possession who can't be expected to embrace the Communists for taking it away from them—the rich, property owners, businessmen, and farmowners whose land will be collectivized.

2. Those who disagree with the Communists on ideological grounds, a large group including religious leaders, teachers and intellectuals.
Suppressions and liquidations in Russia are familiar. There have been some recent examples. Reports from China, reliable or not, tell of more than 1,000,000 people executed in massive purges.
Slaughter By Batches
From Hungary come stories of more than 50,000 of the middle-class taken from their homes in just a couple of months and thrown into labor camps with farmers and landowners.
Besides telling of thousands of American soldier-prisoners slain by the Communists, the U.S. Army in Korea last week reported South Korean civilians slaughtered in batches by the Communists.
But in this country, because of special conditions, the Communists would encounter a problem more complex than any they've found elsewhere. No doubt this would call forth their greatest efforts.
Not A Pleasant Thought
In just sheer number of oppositionists we outdo any other country so far communised because we have more property owners, businessmen, religious leaders, teachers and intellectuals.

What makes this country unique is the number of tieups or links between the members of the groups through their organizations: Fraternal, social, labor, business, professional, religious and political.
Unless well-crushed these organizations would provide, in many cases, the apparatus for an underground resistance which some day might break out in counter-revolution. It isn't pleasant to think of how the crushing would be done. It would be a vast job, involving many people.
Don't Trust Each Other
But for any American Communist who'd take part in American liquidations the stories abroad about Communists' treatment of one another must sometimes be depressing if he wishes to live long himself.
For the Communists, like the female praying mantis which devours the male after mating and perpetuating the species, have a strange habit of liquidating one another as well as strangers after they come to power, a kind of admission that they don't trust themselves, either.
While this business of bumping one another off on grounds of treason to the party after a member

New Oxford

New Oxford — Miss Frances Robinson, who left here earlier this month to take a position at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Little, Hanover, is recovering from a severe cold.
Mr. and Mrs. Bernard A. Wagner, York, and sons, Nicholas, Daniel and Michael, were recent visitors of his mother, Mrs. Ambrose P. Wagner. They were accompanied home by their daughter, Marcia Ann, who had spent a few days with her grandmother.
Claude S. Straley is recovering after being ill at his home for a part of last week.
The Men's Brotherhood of St. Paul's Reformed church conducted a regular meeting at the church building Tuesday evening with the guest speaker Prof. Charles I. Ruffenberger, Gettysburg, assistant superintendent of Adams County schools.
Mrs. Bernard A. Moore, who was quite ill at the Hanover hospital has outlived his usefulness is a form of communistic cannibalism, it shouldn't encourage the hope that in time all the Communists will have eliminated themselves.

ARMLESS GIRL HAS HUNDREDS OF "PEN PALS"

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 29 (AP)—The world has never looked dull for pretty, 11-year-old Joann McCarty, who was born without arms.

But it seems especially bright these days because the plucky youngster, who writes with her toes, has hundreds of new friends she has never met.

Letters are pouring in from all over the country to the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville McCarty of Columbus.

Many come from girls her own age. They are amazed at the things she can do with her feet and they want to become pen pals.

The Associated Press sent Joann's story across the country. It told how she can do almost anything with her toes—even thread a needle.

Offers of Help

Some of her "fans" merely wish her luck. Others send small amounts of money. All are solicitous of the little girl who feels she needs no help.

A doctor in North Hollywood, Calif., told the McCartys he has information on how armless children can learn to play musical instruments. He'll send it to them.

A Memphis, Tenn., businessman says he knows a manufacturer of artificial limbs who will give Joann arms free. McCarty, a truck driver, is seriously considering that offer.

An elderly Indiana couple sent a card of congratulations and wrote on it: "God between you and harm, little darling."

Another Armless Girl

Other letters still are coming in from Arizona, Kansas, Maryland, Iowa, Missouri, Florida, Illinois — from big towns and little towns. Joann pores over them. She says:

"It will take me a long time, but I'm going to answer all of them."

The first one she'll reply to is from little 8-year-old Jo Beth Johnson of Live Oak, Fla. That letter reads:

Hello Joann: "I am Jo Beth. Mama has been writing to you about me, so I am adding a few lines. I like school. Hope you do, too. Write to me if you have time. I write with my toes, too. Love, Jo Beth."

Jo Beth is armless, too.

Harrisburg, Nov. 29 (AP)—A bill permitting allocation of funds to local school districts to help operate civilian manpower program had legislative approval today.

The bill, approved finally by the Senate on Tuesday, allows the state to allocate available funds to schools to assist in operation of programs essential to the mobilization or demobilization of civilian manpower.

Teacher Pay Raise Nears Final Vote

Harrisburg, Nov. 29 (AP)—Legislation granting a $38,000,000 salary increase to Pennsylvania's public school teachers was ready for a final Senate vote today.

There was some doubt, however, that the bills would be brought up for action this week.

The Senate advanced the measures on Tuesday after defeating two attempts to insert amendments. One amendment would put the pay increase into effect for a two-year period only. The other would boost state school subsidies for Pittsburgh school districts to bring them to the same level as payments made to Philadelphia schools.

The measures would provide an immediate $200 pay increase for all

News Briefs

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 29 (AP)—The eighth and final contingent of 28th Division troops boarded a navy transport at the Hampton Roads port of embarkation on Tuesday for movement to Germany. Pennsylvania's famed 28th is the last of the six divisions promised as the United States' contribution to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization army in Europe. The 43rd Division sailed from here last month.

Washington, Nov. 29 (AP)—A four-alarm fire just off Pennsylvania teachers, and establish new maximum and minimum salary levels for public school teachers. The higher pay levels would be reached through a series of annual $100 salary jumps.

avenue threatened an important hotel, department store and government section of the capitol before it was brought under control shortly before dawn Wednesday. Firemen battling the flames in below-freezing weather confined damage to two Eleventh street buildings across the street from the Washington Evening Star and around the corner from FBI headquarters. A fireman, Pvt. Andrew Goldsmith, was seriously injured when an air blast from an exploding third floor window blew him off a 40-foot ladder.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 28 (AP)—The last seven cars of a 10-car New York Central express lurched from the rails at 75 miles an hour Wednesday, but remained upright. Only one person—a crewman—was hurt. The Easterner, bound from Cleveland to New York, was halted by automatic emergency brakes near Stuyvesant, Columbia county, 19 miles south of Albany, at 1:30 a.m. The cause was not determined immediately. A railroad official said the train apparently hit a defective rail.

Washington, Nov. 29 (AP)—A long-smouldering feud inside the big Missouri Pacific Railroad company's financial family has burst into full public view.

Sixty-seven-year-old Paul J. Neff, a veteran in MOPAC service, was summarily fired on Tuesday as president of the corporation by Col. T. C. Davis, board chairman. This came minutes after Neff had given testimony at an interstate commission hearing on the value of the railroad's common stock. The road has been in bankruptcy litigation since 1933.

When explorers reached the new world they found Indians cultivating corn and worshipping it as a sacred crop.

SENATE OUT TO CUT BUDGET TO AVOID TAXES

Harrisburg, Nov. 29 (AP)—The Republican-controlled Senate set out today to cut appropriations in order to bring the commonwealth's budget in line with a $100,000,000 tax program.

The goal of $47,000,000 in appropriation reductions was fixed after GOP senators tentatively agreed on $100 million in new taxes, including the speeded up collection of $61 million in corporate net income taxes in the present two-year fiscal period.

Sen. James S. Berger (R-Potter), GOP caucus chairman, was optimistic an end to the unprecedented deadlock on taxes was at hand. "It looks like the log jam is broken," he said. "We should have our fiscal problems solved shortly."

Tax Agreement
The tax agreement was tentatively reached at a GOP caucus yesterday shortly before the Senate went home until next Monday. The House, which already has passed all portions of the tax program, is in recess until December 10.

Berger said the GOP senators already aim to cut $16 million from the $20,000,000 appropriation requested by Gov. John S. Pine for civil defense.

A $56 million teacher salary boost, however, is expected to remain intact, said the caucus chairman.

The Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce recommended yesterday that if the legislature does not enact a broad-based tax, such as on incomes or sales, no further salary boost should be given to teachers.

Other Tax Sources
Besides the $61 million speedup in collection of corporate net income taxes, the GOP senators tentatively agreed to:

(1) Collect $10 million in additional inheritance taxes by increasing from 10 per cent to 15 per cent the rate on estates left to others than direct heirs. The House had proposed an increase to 20 per cent. The present two per cent tax on direct heirs would remain the same.

(2) Remove exemptions from the eight-mill tax on gross receipts of transportation utilities. The exemptions now permit bus firms and for-hire truckers to deduct from their tax bill the amount of license and similar fees paid to the state. This would raise $19 million.

To Go Over Budget
To this total of $96 million would be added $5 million as the estimate from a recently enacted law closing loopholes in the corporate net income tax.

Lesser taxes to the extent of $5 million may be imposed, Berger said, to round out the total tax figure to $100 million.

The GOP caucus called on Pine's budget secretary, Dr. Edward B. Logan, to submit next Monday a complete list of appropriation bills. They will be broken down as to the amount allotted in other years, the amount allocated in the governor's budget and the amount asked for the bills themselves.

These measures will be gone over in detail to find a way to cut back Pine's $122,000,000 budget by $47 million.

The Senate heard another statement yesterday from Sen. John J. Haluska (D-Cambria) on his charge that he was offered patronage "bribes" to support the discarded income tax bill.

He said some of his Democratic colleagues were "unjustly" linked with the charges. The senator said he was referring specifically to Sens. John H. Dent (D-Westmoreland), Joseph Barr (D-Allegheny) and Samuel Neff (D-Beaver).

Meanwhile, the Senate held up action on legislation to give Pennsylvania's 60,000 school teachers a $56 million pay boost pending disposition of the tax problem. There was a possibility that there would be a final vote on the bills next week.

A new gold strike, assaying $400-$700 a ton, has skyrocketed the little California mining town of Sutter Creek out of its recent $17-a-ton doldrums. The strike was made at the nearby historic Central Eureka mine which began operations in 1869.

VFW MEETING HELD TUESDAY

The Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 6954, met Tuesday evening at the post home with John Bloom, commander, in charge. Delegates from the membership committee who attended the county membership rally held in Gettysburg were John H. Riley and Monroe J. Staveley. Tentative plans were discussed for the quarterly 21st District meeting to be held in Mt. Wolf, December 16. Members of the post who served along with members of the Legion post on a joint memorial committee were relieved of their duties upon the completion of the memorial. The Legion and the VFW have formed a Veterans' council for all future work in connection with the memorial, and those serving from the VFW are Gerald Daley, Monroe J. Staveley and Burnell Keagy.

A donation was made to a needy family in the vicinity. Commander Bloom and John H. Riley reported on the Regional Service Officers' committee meeting which they attended in Wilkes-Barre, November 18. The local post has been supplying information for weekly radio broadcasts each Saturday at 1 p.m. in November and December. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, December 11.

The Joint Veterans' Council comprised of members from the Ocker-Snyder Legion Post No. 521 and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 6954, has announced that the bronze plate on which was written the names of those who gave their lives in World War II, has been removed from the plot. It will be replaced with a plaque, material of which will be similar to that of the memorial, and will contain the names of all those who gave their lives in World Wars I and II, as well as any who pay the supreme sacrifice in the present conflict.

Play Friday Night
The meeting of the baton twirling class taught by Joan Shull, which meets Saturday morning in the Engine house, will be held this week in the POS of A hall instead.

Tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, in the auditorium of the Junior-Senior high school building, the Senior class of the Littlestown high school will present a mystery drama, entitled "Nine Girls." An all girl cast has been chosen under the direction of Miss LeOra Held. Tickets may be secured from any member of the senior class.

The cast of characters includes Penny Néster, Mary Flickinger, Beverly DeHoff, Marie Baschoar, Shirley Warner, Phyllis Hawk, Nancy Renner, Mary Lou Boyd, Nancy Myers and Dolores Rae Rein-dollar. Joan Clapsaddle will be prompter, Brenda Hess, stage manager, and Ferree LeFevre, sound effects manager. The ticket committee includes Myrtle Good, Mary Chronister and Kathryn Eckenrode. The Ladies Auxiliary of the Kings-dale Fire company will hold a public party in the engine house Thursday evening, December 6.

KILLED BY CAR

Harrisburg, Nov. 29 (AP)—Mrs. Ida M. Ream, 65, died in Polytechnic hospital here last night after being struck by an automobile near her suburban Penbrook home. Chief of Police William L. ## The art of transmutation

Spurred by dreams of great wealth and power, alchemists of long ago frantically searched for a method of making gold in the laboratory. Fantastic chemical mixtures and processes were tried—all to no avail. Only in recent years have the dreams of the alchemist materialized. By subjecting platinum to neutron bombardment, gold can be produced in the laboratory. Because of the low yield and high expense involved, however, it is unlikely that gold produced in an atomic pile will ever replace that obtained in the conventional way. We are unable to make gold in our prescription department, but the medicines carried here are more powerful than all the gold in the world. We are prepared to help you when sickness strikes.

HOW TO REARM, STAY SOLVENT, NATO PROBLEM

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Nov. 29 (AP) — Stories from Rome will tell you about the daily doings of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), made up of 12 nations, including the U. S., banded together in defense against Russia.

It is an important meeting. It has brought together the foreign ministers of the 12 nations, including own Secretary of State Acheson, and their military chiefs, including General Eisenhower.

The 12 NATO nations face a double, serious problem in their Rome discussions: How to arm and raise troops as fast as possible and, while they're doing it, how to keep from going broke.

This is a brief background on the Rome meeting:

In 1947—when it was plain Western Europe was economically ruined by the war and might fall to the Communists unless helped out of the trap—this country set up the Marshall plan.

Scared By Red Coo

But meanwhile the Russians were active. By a coup they took over Czechoslovakia in 1948. This scared Britain, France, Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg. They formed a military alliance.

By themselves they were no match for Russia. That was clear. Yet, if they fell, Russia would have Europe and we'd be pretty much alone. In 1949 the North Atlantic treaty was signed.

This was NATO, an organization of 12 nations rimming the North Atlantic and with a common interest in defending themselves against communism. They pledged help to one another in case of attack.

This didn't mean much unless the 12 members were well enough armed to defend themselves. This country chipped in and began sending arms. But it was being done pretty leisurely.

The Communists struck again, this time in Korea, in June, 1950. That broke the egg. NATO got busy. And about a year ago they decided they'd better pool their military strength. Unify it, they said.

The European members of NATO agreed they'd like to have General Eisenhower boss the job.

They agreed to provide troops—about 60 divisions by 1954—to serve under him. We agreed to send six American divisions to help out.

Economic Plans Upset

And while arming NATO had now become a really big job, with the U. S. providing a big part of the arms, the other NATO members agreed they'd produce a good share of the arms themselves.

But this all happened just about the time they were getting on their feet with Marshall plan help. They had been putting all their energy and money and goods into domestic stuff.

Now they had to divert a good bit of it to military production. This meant men had to be taken out of civilian production for use as soldiers or for use in arms factories.

The net results: Less goods for civilians and the economies of the big NATO nations, like Britain and France, put in a tailspin, especially since prices on the world markets for imported goods shot up.

The American Congress voted about $7,500,000,000 for arms and economic aid. It may not be enough, for Britain and France particularly are getting into sour shape, economically. Meanwhile, arms production and raising of troops has fallen behind schedule.

London, Nov. 29 (AP) — Angry laborites kept the House of Commons sitting all night in a stormy debate on Prime Minister Winston Churchill's plan to raise a home guard—armed forces of civilians to help defend Britain in case of war.

It was 10:50 o'clock this morning when weary, unshaven MPs finally tottered home after sitting 20 hours and 20 minutes—the longest sitting since last June 11. Then the House sat continuously for nearly 32 hours.

Washington, Nov. 29 (AP) — The navy reported Wednesday one of its patrol planes was fired on by a wooden vessel about 50 miles east of the South China port of Swatow. Brief reports received here said the American plane was not hit by some 50 rounds of machine gun fire at a range of 2,000 yards. Swatow is near the southern end of the Formosa strait, which has been patrolled by the navy since the start of hostilities in Korea.

PINE BORERS INFEST BUILDINGS

Several readers have written the editor in recent weeks to request information on how to exterminate borers working in frame and finish lumber of dwelling houses. Because these invaders may be easily confused with wood-eating termites, identification as well as a means of control is important in appraising the ravages and planning prevention and combat.

The wood-eating termite is seldom seen although the parent form, usually called "flying" or "winged" ant by mistake, is seen in late spring and occasionally in early fall when they come forth to mate and form a new colony. The particular form that actually feeds in seasoned timber is a wingless, sightless grub. The winged form can easily be distinguished from a winged ant by its heavy (thick) waistline.

No reader who has written us to date about the wood borer has been able to furnish the editor a specimen for positive identification. One complainant reports that the worms can be heard distinctly feeding in their burrows when the room is still. Others say studdings and door and window trim lumber are so seriously damaged that most of these timbers will have to be replaced. On only one point do all reporters of these problems agree—they all say the pests are infesting pine lumber only. Most reports also indicate that ravages are occurring in houses built within the last three or four years. It is from these meager bits of information that some general suggestions may be based for developing control and prevention measures.

First, residents who find their pine buildings infested by borers should immediately determine if the invaders are wood-eating termites. This is a comparatively easy task. The termite enters building timbers from the soil and must maintain constant connection with the ground by means of an earthen tube built up the side of the foundation, pier, chimney base or water and drainage pipes. It comes from a colony in the soil, usually near the foundation.

There are several species of borers likely to infest seasoned timbers, including powder-post beetles, round-headed borers, flat-headed borers, and minor types. In most cases these spend their entire lives within the timber and do not, like the termite, have to keep in contact with the colony in the soil.

It seems likely that the borers infesting pine timbers have been introduced by way of the infested logs from which the lumber was sawed. This is particularly true of numerous species of bark beetles, the larvae of some species later continuing to feed in the wood.

Considerable experimental work has been done in developing wood treatments to kill and prevent these pests. One of the more promising bears the long but not difficult name of orthodichlorobenzene. The commercial mixture may be applied full strength or diluted with fuel oil. It is brushed or sprayed on borer-infested wood and may even be used over painted or varnished surfaces, although refinishing may be necessary later to cover the stain. Orthodichlorobenzene is non-inflammable and only slightly poisonous. However, windows and doors should be opened during and for several hours after application.

Readers are urged to capture and send to the editor specimens of any wood borers found. This service will greatly aid in recommending control measures.

"POOR REPORTER" CHARGE HURLED BACK BY BOYLE

By HAL BOYLE
New York, (AP)—Some army officers retire gracefully.

Others retire like Maj. Gen. Charles A. Willoughby, former chief of intelligence for Gen. Douglas MacArthur. They carry their mental wounds back into civil life.

General Willoughby has a grudge. He is mad at a fair segment of the American press for the coverage of the Korean war.

Sheathing his sword and taking up his pen, he attacks six correspondents, including this writer and three weekly news magazines in an article in the December issue of "Cosmopolitan."

General's Charges
His general charges against the newsmen are that, we spread defeatism, "confused an unhappy public," and had "a marked tendency to smear General MacArthur." He even goes so far as to assert:

"The nuance of defeat created an atmosphere of tension, uneasiness and distrust between Tokyo and Washington. This is believed to have been the major cause of the MacArthur-Truman split."

The general accuses the six war reporters of being "often inaccurate, biased, prejudiced, petulant, x x x Their reporting furnished aid and comfort to the enemy."

The duty of a war reporter on the battlefield isn't to gloss over disaster or hide the mistakes of the top brass. It is his duty to find out what is happening in the war—and let the people back home know what is happening. That is what the soldiers themselves want him to do. His only restriction is this—never to write anything that will threaten the actual combat security of the troops.

Alleges Blunders
My own feeling is that General Willoughby has taken up a blunder-buss against the press to hide his own blunders.

It was—in the opinion of a number of trained war correspondents on the scene—the reporting of General Willoughby himself that gave "aid and comfort to the enemy" and let down General MacArthur.

The White House records of the Truman-MacArthur conference on Wake Island on October 15, 1950, show that MacArthur was asked what the chances were of Chinese or Soviet interference in Korea.

And MacArthur was quoted in reply: "Very little, x x x We are no longer fearful of their intervention. We no longer stand hat in hand."

Presumably From Willoughby
"The Chinese have 300,000 men in Manchuria. Of these probably not more than 100,000 to 125,000 are distributed along the Yalu river. Only 50,000 to 60,000 could be gotten across the Yalu river. They have no air force. Now that we have bases for our air force in Korea, if the Chinese tried to get down to Pyongyang there would be the greatest slaughter."

Presumably Willoughby supplied this estimate to his chief. That was his job.

Forty days later the U.N. launched its "win-the-war" offensive. On that day—Nov. 24—Tokyo headquarters intelligence still put the total Chinese and North Korean enemy in Korea at only 100,000 men.

Argument With History
It was an extremely costly miscalculation. Tremendous numbers of waiting Chinese Reds rose up, split the Allied drive and forced a long withdrawal.

On December—eight days after the attack began—MacArthur estimated the enemy at 600,000 men, including 500,000 Chinese and 100,000 North Koreans.

Who really let MacArthur down in the lost battle near the Yalu—a few newspapermen or his own chief of intelligence?

General Willoughby's argument is with history, not with newsmen carrying out their responsibility to the American public.

Teen-Agers Are Urged Not To Smoke "That First Reefer"

"Don't smoke that first reefer." In an open letter addressed to teenage boys and girls on the subject of taking "dope," the editors of the Baltimore News-Post recently delved into their own experiences with crime and narcotics investigations, and declared:

"When you smoke that first 'reefer' you are starting on a downward road that will lead you to ruin of body and soul. Once your foot is upon that road there is no escape from it."

The letter was published in the News-Post and addressed to the teen-agers, not to the parents, "because many of you have fallen into the evil habit of smoking marijuana or taking dope, and, only you, not your parents, can stop it."

"The editors of this newspaper have lived longer than you have and they have seen, close-up, the ugly side of life, but they were teen-agers once. They understand and have sympathy for the youthful longings which cause boys and girls to want to seem 'smart,' to do 'daring' things which they think will attract the admiration of their companions, particularly those of the opposite sex. But because of the horrible things they have seen and heard they want to tell you solemnly and truthfully:

Stupid to Take Dope

"It is not smart to take dope—it is stupid."

"It is a pity that all teen-agers could not have personally attended the hearings on narcotics addiction held by the Senate crime investigating committee. Had they heard the dreadful, sordid stories unfolded by wretched young women and men whose whole lives had been ruined because they permitted themselves to be persuaded to smoke that first marijuana cigarette for a 'thrill,' that first reefer would never touch their lips."

"They smoked that first reefer for a thrill and to be smart and daring. They were presented it by a 'friend,' who, actually, regardless of who he was, has proved to be their worst enemy."

Agent of Peddler

"In many cases the giver was actually the deliberate or unconscious agent of some sinister dope peddler lurking in the background and using this means of getting one more customer to prey upon and ruin. The pattern follows through to the second stage when the reefer smoker's body demands stronger stimulation. That is where the 'friend' again appears, offering a gift of a 'sniff' of heroin or cocaine, often with the calculating eye of the peddler, or perhaps the gift comes from the peddler himself." The third stage comes when "sniffing" no longer satisfies the craving and the addict takes to "shots" in the arm. The victim drops out of school, steals from parents or others to buy dope and sinks lower and lower into the vilest forms of crime and vice.

"Don't smoke that first reefer. Don't inhale that first 'sniff,' regardless of who offers it to you, even a dear friend or relative," says the News-Post.

"But if you do get the habit, confide in your parents, your teacher or some other understanding friend in whom you have confidence. Only thus can you avoid ruin. Only thus can you look forward to a happy lifetime, with marriage, home and children. Only thus can you prevent yourself from blighting the lives of those dearest to you."

SAYS PRESSURE PUT ON TAX BILL THRU HOSPITALS

Harrisburg, Nov. 29 (P)—A Democrat charged that Gov. John S. Fine has been withholding payments to state-aided hospitals and other institutions to "exert pressure" in behalf of the discharged income tax bill.

Sen. Joseph J. Yosko (D-Northampton) made the charge in a Senate resolution yesterday. The resolution of St. Francis Xavier church, will assist in the solemn high mass in the morning at 10:30 o'clock. Other clergy members who will attend the morning service include the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Patrick McGee, McSherrytown; Rt. Rev. Msgr. John L. Sheridan, president of Mount St. Mary's college, and Rev. William F. Culhane, vice president of Mount St. Mary's.

Yosko challenged the right of the governor to place state-aided institutions in the so-called "non-preferred category," and added:

"The verbal opinion of the attorney general was rendered only as a subterfuge to carry out the threat of the governor relative to the withholding of funds in order to create the financial situation which now exists in these institutions; the creation of the existing financial situation was intended as a means of exerting pressure upon the members of the Senate to vote for the proposed income tax."

Yosko said that some 250 state-aided institutions are finding themselves "in straitened financial circumstances" because of failure to receive the state grants.

This, he said, has made many institutions unable to "serve the citizens of the commonwealth in the usual manner."

The Hospital Association of Pennsylvania said recently that some 71 community hospitals have reported themselves in "financial distress" because of the halted state-aid payments. It said many of the hospitals have been "forced into debt" to meet expenses.
